BAKERSFIELD CONDORS EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

Owner

Jonathan Fleisig

Fleisig, 44, is the principal owner and CEO of the Bakersfield Condors hockey team. This is the 14th season for the club under his ownership. While the Condors played in the WCHL, Fleisig was a member of the league's Executive Committee, and was actively involved in the assimilation into the ECHL for 2003-04.

His sports interests don't stop with the Condors, however. Fleisig formerly was also the sole owner of the Las Vegas Wranglers (and sold them this past summer) and started the organization in 2003. He also has an ownership stake, in the Lake County Fielders, in the Northern League, and has been involved with numerous baseball and hockey teams around the country from Kansas to Massachusetts, as well as arena football here in Bakersfield with the Blitz.

In 2010, Fleisig founded Thorium Asset Management as a commodity hedge fund. Thorium Asset Management looks to create returns through various trading strategies that take advantage of inefficiencies that are normal and natural in the marketplace.

Fleisig has had a lifelong dedication to community work and charitable organizations, including Split Hand/Split Foot (SHFM) disorders, the Children's Hospital at Montefiore, Chai Lifeline and Paul Newman's The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp, among others. The Condors mirror his belief that minor league sports provide valuable and responsible assets to the community through involvement in local charities, schools and civic organizations. They were also awarded the WCHL's Best Community Development Program in both 01-02 and 02-03, and have raised over $3.6 million for the community during his ownership, in addition to employees individually being involved in countless non-profit organizations in the history of the team.

By his blueprint, the Condors have strived to improve the quality of life in Kern County and the team's community awards are a tremendous sense of pride for Fleisig. The Condors have received local community awards in five of the last seven years, from the Bakersfield Chamber of Commerce, the United Way, and the Hispanic Chamber of Kern County, including back-to-back Beautiful Bakersfield Group Humanitarian Awards in 2005 and 2006.

Fleisig's teams off the ice also focus on developing business talent, providing opportunities for internships to college students and those willing to learn while they work their way into the sports industry and beyond, building from within and developing management talent internally. Despite living on the opposite coast, his visibility in Condorstown is high, typically making multiple trips each season to Bakersfield, holding fan forums with season tickets holders and corporate partners, and encouraging communication and feedback from fans, responding to countless personal emails each season.

A New York City native, Fleisig received his BA in economics from the University of Michigan in 1987 and a MBA in marketing from Fordham University in 1994.

Team President Matthew Riley

Riley, 45, is responsible for the growth and development of Bakersfield Sports Entertainment. Riley is the vice chairman for the ECHL Board of Governors Executive Committee, and also a part of the Marketing/Properties Committee. Under his guidance, the Condors have attracted more than 200,000 fans in 11 of their 14 years of existence and will surpass the 3 million mark in attendance in the 2011-12 season.

Riley joined the organization late in 1997, when they were named the Bakersfield Fog, to execute the transition from the Bakersfield Convention Center to Bakersfield Centennial Garden (now known as Rabobank Arena). He took charge of the Condors in July of 1998, and in his first season as General Manager, the Condors were named the West Coast Hockey League Organization of the Year. In his second season he was named the WCHL Executive of the Year.

His title was expanded to include Team President in 2001; meanwhile the Condors won ten WCHL awards in five seasons under his leadership. During the summer of 2002, Riley was named the Acting Commissioner of the West Coast Hockey League, and he played a large role in the transition to the ECHL as well as closing down WCHL operations.

With Riley at the helm, the Condors have won eight ECHL front office awards in the last eight seasons, most recently including the ECHL Award of Excellence (2010-11) and two selections for the ECHL Marketing Award of Excellence (2010 & 2008). He also claimed his second Executive of the Year nod in 2006-07. The Condors have raised more than $4.3 million for charitable organizations in Kern County during the last 12 years. Riley also played an integral role in the start up of the Las Vegas Wranglers in the ECHL.

The Keokuk, Iowa, native has previously served as the Executive Director of the Mobile (AL) BayBears Baseball Club, the class-AA Southern League affiliate of the San Diego Padres, and was integral in the construction of Hank Aaron Stadium, their home park. During their inaugural season in 1997, the BayBears led the Southern League in attendance, and Riley was the Southern League nominee for the National Association's Larry MacPhail Promotional Trophy. He also served as General Manager with the Mobile BaySharks Baseball Club, Assistant General Manager of the Chattanooga (TN) Lookouts (Southern League) and interned for the St. Louis Cardinals Baseball Club. Riley is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University with a degree in communications. He earned a master's degree in sport management from the United States Sports Academy in Daphne, Alabama.

Riley serves on the Board of Directors for the American Red Cross Kern County Chapter, and is also very active with Bakersfield Northwest Baseball and the Bakersfield Ice Sports Center youth hockey program. He and his wife, Teri, reside in Bakersfield with their son, Landon.

2011-2012 BAKERSFIELD CONDORS HOCKEY OPERATIONS BIOS

HEAD COACH - MATT O'DETTE

Matt O'Dette, 36, was named the fourth head coach in Condors history on July 12, 2011, and made his head coaching debut with the Condors in 2011-12. Forced to build his team practically from scratch, with only two returning players, and after winning his first two games behind the bench, the Condors struggled until February while the rookie bench boss continued to build his roster. His rookie-laden roster then rattled off one of the best records in the ECHL over the final third of the season. It is from that roster at the end of the year, which featured 13 first-year pros and three ECHL Player of the Week winners, that O'Dette sculpts his second Condors squad.

Prior to joining the Condors, O'Dette spent two seasons as an assistant coach under Matt Thomas with the Stockton Thunder, where he wrapped up his playing career. In his two campaigns behind the Thunder bench, the Thunder compiled a 70-52-22 record for a .563 win pct., and a 10-9 record in the Kelly Cup Playoffs, including a trip to the Western Conference Finals in 2009-10.

The 6-foot-5, 230-pound former blueliner first earned notoriety in Condorstown while spending six seasons patrolling the blueline for rivals Stockton as well as the Fresno Falcons, including three as the team captain. His 2005-06 Falcons squad clipped the Condors in a 7-game, 2nd round series, eventually losing to Alaska in the conference finals.

O'Dette spent six seasons in the American Hockey League with three clubs, after starting his pro career in 1996-97 in the ECHL with the Roanoke Express. The following season he was a part of the St. John Flames in the AHL, who reached the Calder Cup Finals. He reached the finals again in 2002-03 as a member of the Hamilton Bulldogs.

Drafted in the 7th round in 1994 by the Florida Panthers, he attended eight NHL training camps and played 663 professional games, including 263 in the AHL with the St. John Flames, Quebec Citadels and Hamilton Bulldogs. In 400 career ECHL games, O'Dette amassed 29g-64a-93pts and 968 penalty minutes while suiting up for the Roanoke Express, Fresno Falcons and Stockton Thunder. All told, O'Dette posted 38g-78a-116pts and 1,587 penalty minutes in his playing career.

Assistant Coach Kevin Barrett

Barrett, 40, enters his second season in the professional coaching ranks, with a team that he spent parts of three seasons playing for. The Winnipeg, Manitoba, native played 123 games, primarily on defense, as player/assistant coach of the Fog in 1996-97, and with the Condors in 1998-99 and 1999-00. His 477 penalty minutes between the Fog/Condors ranks 6th all-time in Bakersfield history.

After a junior career that was highlighted by a Memorial Cup Championship with the Swift Current Broncos in 1989, Barrett played three seasons at the University of Manitoba, where he graduated with a psychology degree. He then put together a pro career that spanned seven seasons, from 1993-00. It included stops in Shreveport in the Western Professional Hockey League, Oklahoma City in the Central Hockey League, and Flint and Muskegon in the Colonial Hockey League, in addition to Bakersfield. In 373 career games, Barrett racked up 47 goals, 149 points and 1,620 minutes in the penalty box. In 1993-94 as a rookie with Muskegon, he cracked the 300-PIM plateau, leading the CoHL in fighting majors and was named the Fury's Rookie of the Year. He topped the 250-PIM mark four more times in his career.

He has been active in the Bakersfield community as well, founding the annual Condors Fighting Cancer Hockey-Thon in 2004-05, which has since raised over $300,000 in eight seasons. He also spent four seasons, from 2001-02 through 2004-05 as the color commentator on Condors radio and television broadcasts, while being active on the local youth hockey scene in Bakersfield as well as Winnipeg. Barrett and his wife, Mikie, reside in Bakersfield with their three children.

TEAM STAFF

His career started in the ECHL with the Louisville RiverFrogs in 1995-96, and he has since worked over 1,000 games for the Wichita Thunder (CHL), Greensboro Generals (ECHL) and Bossier-Shreveport Mudbugs (CHL), where he was an integral part of a President's Cup Championship in 2010-11. George's duties as head athletic trainer include overseeing all the medical needs of the Condors, both on and off the ice. The Lebanon, New York native was also named Athletic Trainer of the Year in the CHL in 2010-11. Bullock received his Bachelor's degree in Sports Medicine at Guilford College in Greensboro, North Carolina, and his Master's in Sport Injury Prevention & Management at Springfield College in Massachusetts. In addition to his athletic trainer duties, he also spent a season as equipment manager with Wichita in 1996-97. Outside of hockey, he has also worked in the af2, independent baseball and Roller Hockey International (RHI) from 1996-98 (alongside former Condor Jamie Cooke with Orlando in 1997-98). George and his wife Sarah reside in Bakersfield and have two daughters, Emilia and Gabriella.

BRIAN SCHMIDT – EQUIPMENT MANAGER

A newcomer to the Condors hockey operations staff, Schmidt begins his fifth season as a professional equipment manager. Last season, Schmidt worked in the ECHL for the Chicago Express and has spent time with the Elmira Jackals, Bloomington Prairie Thunder, and the Rockford IceHogs. From Detroit, Mich., Schmidt attended the University of Michigan-Dearborn where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports management. While in college, he played four seasons for the Wolves' hockey team.

CONDORS IN THE NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE

(in order of NHL debut)

Player	Condors season	NHL Team
--------	----------------	----------

Garret Stroshein	2001-02	Washington Capitals (2003-04)
-------------------------	---------	-------------------------------

The first Condor to crack an NHL lineup, hulking Garret Stroshein was picked up at the end of the 2001-02 season and played in four playoff games for the Condors. It was during training camp the following season that the Portland Pirates of the AHL came calling for Stroshein and he never returned. The 6'7", 245-pound winger spent most the following four seasons in the AHL, and it was from Portland in 2003-04 that their NHL affiliate brought him up for a three-game stint.

Connor James	2004-05	Los Angeles Kings (2005-06), Pittsburgh Penguins (2007-09)
---------------------	---------	------------------------------------------------------------

One of two Kings assignees during the lockout season, James was the first prospect superstar in Condorstown. His speed and talent were obvious immediately, and he was named ECHL Rookie of the Month in October, 2004 - his first month of pro hockey. A graduate of Denver College, James made a couple trips to the AHL that season, and still managed to finish third in goals and points on the Condors, despite appearing in only 51 games. He made his NHL debut with Los Angeles, but 14 of his 16 NHL games, and his only goal, came later with the Penguins.

Yutaka Fukufuji	2004-05, 2007-2009	Los Angeles Kings (2006-07)
------------------------	--------------------	-----------------------------

Fukufuji was assigned to the Condors along with Connor James during the lockout season in the NHL, when the Kings had difficulty finding a spot for all of their prospects. He stole the show, setting then-records for rookie goaltenders in Condorstown and becoming a huge fan favorite, despite not speaking hardly any English for his first full season in North America. He was the first Japanese player ever drafted by an NHL club, and although his time in Los Angeles was short-lived, in Bakersfield it was not, and he owns Condors career goaltending records for games, wins, minutes and is tied for the lead in shutouts.

The second Kings goaltender assigned to Bakersfield, Taylor appeared in 17 games with the Condors during his rookie season, posting a 7-7-2 record. But by the following season he was a regular with the Kings AHL affiliate in Manchester, and posted a solid 2.40 GAA and a .921 save percentage in two dozen games. That earned him a shot in the NHL with Los Angeles, albeit a quick one. He appeared in just one period and allowed two goals on 10 shots.

Alexandre Bolduc	2005-07	Vancouver Canucks (2008-11), Phoenix Coyotes (2011-12)
-------------------------	---------	--------------------------------------------------------

The AHL's Manitoba Moose took a liking to the Condors rookie in 2005-06 and thus started the progression of winger Bolduc. Selected to the ECHL All-Star Game that season (he didn't get to play because he was in the AHL), he set a new Condors rookie record with eight points in the playoffs. He returned the following season and posted 24 points in just 16 games with Bakersfield, but he was already an AHL regular by then. From Manitoba he moved on to Vancouver, where he skated in parts of three seasons. He signed with Phoenix in summer, 2011.

MacGregor Sharp	2009-10	Anaheim Ducks (2009-10)
------------------------	---------	-------------------------

The rookie center got off to a hot start with the Condors in 2009-10, and became the first position player to be recalled directly to the NHL in ECHL history. He skated in eight games with the Ducks that season, though he did not record a point. He spent most of the remainder of that season in the AHL, and the entire following season. Sharp had 16 points in 17 games for the Condors in the regular season, and tied Bolduc's rookie record with eight points in the Kelly Cup Playoffs.

Dan Sexton	2009-10	Anaheim Ducks (2009-11)
-------------------	---------	-------------------------

Even on a Condors squad filled with Ducks prospects, it was impossible not to notice Dan Sexton. The 5'9", 165-pound winger had blazing speed and the offensive talents to be the second Condor to go from Bakersfield to the NHL in the same season. After posting 26 points in 18 games, Sexton made the jump to the American Hockey League and never returned. He played five games in the AHL before bursting onto the scene with Anaheim and scoring an overtime winner just a week into his NHL career. He has played more games and scored more points in the NHL than any other Condors player.

Timo Pielmeier	2009-10	Anaheim Ducks (2010-11)
-----------------------	---------	-------------------------

A 20-year old rookie goalie when he was with the Condors, Pielmeier made headlines when he became the youngest goalie in pro hockey history to score a goal. He also backstopped the Condors to their first ever regular season division title, appearing in 57 games and winning 27 of them. He played in the ECHL All-Star Game that season, and claimed a Goaltender of the Month honor as well. His time in the NHL was shortlived, manning the Ducks net for just two periods, but he became the third goalie in Condors history to take the ice in an NHL contest.

Maxime Macenauer	2009-10	Anaheim Ducks (2011-12)
-------------------------	---------	-------------------------

A rookie center with the Condors, his season was off to a good start as one of the team's scoring leaders in mid-November when an injury derailed him for half the campaign. He returned and posted 21 points in 45 games, added a goal in the playoffs, and showed flashes of brilliance. After spending the entire following season in the AHL, Macenauer got his chance in 2011-12 to play in Anaheim, and got into 29 games, posting four points.

Stu Bickel	2009-10	New York Rangers (2011-12)
-------------------	---------	----------------------------

The fifth player from the 2009-10 season to grace an NHL lineup, D Stu Bickel was with the Condors on assignment from the Anaheim Ducks. Later dealt to the New York Rangers, Bickel made his NHL debut in 2011-12 with New York and was the first Condor to play in the NHL Winter Classic. He has also played in more Stanley Cup Playoff games than any Condor in history. Bickel posted 1g-12a and 50 PIM in 24 games with Bakersfield, and added two assists in nine Kelly Cup Playoff games.

THE BAKERSFIELD FOG

1995-96 through 1997-98

Why did we separate the Bakersfield Fog history into it's own section?

Inevitably this question will come up. The answers are not black and white, as the Fog history IS the Condors history... technically. But the answer is the same to the question of why we did NOT separate the Condors WCHL and ECHL history: Gut Feeling. It felt right to keep the Condors WCHL and ECHL history together. And conversely, it felt right to split the Condors and Fog apart.

The Fog operated for three seasons in a fledgling league, in a fledgling market, in a building that was not exactly tailored for housing a professional team. In 1998 a new building was built for the club, and with it a new name, to signal a new start for a promising organization. Now, with over a decade of Condors hockey in the books, and nearly all benchmarks and accolades in Bakersfield hockey history coming under the Condors moniker, it seems right to split off from the Fog. These seasons are split not to lose them in the back of the media guide, but to preserve them, as over the line shifts of time, the Fog's players and records have been forced from the pages by the more successful, more enduring Condors.

The reality is, only Steve Dowhy's monstrous offensive numbers, and the occasional penalty minute totals, remain on the pages of the Condors record books that pay any tribute at all to the Fog. And with it, the two-year career of Lee Schill is lost, who toiled away in 81 Fog games of fire-wagon hockey, turning in a 4.82 career Bakersfield goals against average. And also the 150 games played by Wade Welte, who had over 100 points and 700 PIM in a Fog jersey. As well as other memorable Fog characters... not the least of which is Tule, one of the strangest hockey mascots ever.

These days, Schill's 4.82 GAA is as inconceivable as Dowhy's 124 points in 63 games in 1996-97. That season, in a 64-game schedule, there were nine WCHL players with over 100 points and five with 50 or more goals. Anchorage had three players with 300+ PIM, and none of them led the league. The WCHL's best goalie that season, Sergei Naumov, had a 3.14 GAA, and Schill ranked 7th, while .898 led the league in save pct. In 2010-11, Naumov would have ranked 20th in the ECHL in GAA, and the ECHL's leading scorer with 94 points, Justin Donati, would have been 11th in WCHL scoring in 1996-97.

If those feel like they were different days, it's because they were.

We remember the Fog's three seasons as the kick-start of pro hockey in what has become known as Condorstown. It is nostalgic and it is historical. However, it is memorable as much for what it was not, as it's remembered for what it was. For that reason we will always include the Fog's days in the Condors media guide, but for now, we will keep them apart.

For the Steve Dowhy's and the Lee Schill's and the Wade Welte's of Bakersfield hockey history, this is the unchanging three-season history of the Bakersfield Fog. These guys can be remembered now as Fog players and Bakersfield hockey trailblazers, not just random names here and there scattered into winds of nearly 20 years of Bakersfield professional hockey.

They will now stand apart, on their own merits, because it feels like they should.

The Bakersfield Fog played from 1995-96 to 1997-98, skating at the Bakersfield Convention Center. The theater seating made for an interesting atmosphere, and necessitated the use of clear dasherboards at one end zone to allow fans to see the play from lower angles. Centennial Garden was completed in the summer of 1998, in time for the first season of the Condors.

OVERTIME PROCEDURES:

If the score is tied at the end of regulation time, each team will receive one point in the league standings. Teams will then play a five-minute sudden death overtime period. The first team to score during that time will be declared the winner and be awarded an additional point.

During the overtime period, teams will skate 4-on-4 with one goaltender. If a team is penalized, teams play 4-on-3. A team is allowed to pull its goaltender in favor of an additional skater in overtime. However, should that team lose the game while the goaltender is removed, it would forfeit the automatic point gained in the tie at the end of regulation play. The exception is if a goaltender was removed during a delayed penalty.

If no team scores in the five-minute period, then a shootout will occur. The winner of the shootout will be awarded the additional point.

Five players from each team will participate in the shootout and shall proceed in such order as the coach selects. Any player may participate in the shootout unless he has been assessed a game misconduct, gross misconduct or match penalty during the game.

The home team may opt to shoot or defend first during the five-round shootout. The team with the most goals scored shall be declared the winner.

If the score is tied after five rounds, each team will then choose another skater to take a penalty shot. (This skater cannot be one of the original five skaters.) This is a sudden death situation with the procedure continuing until one team scores and the other team doesn't.

PLAYOFF OVERTIME FORMAT:

If the score is tied after regulation during a playoff game, teams will proceed to 20-minute sudden death overtime periods to determine the outcome of the game. The teams will continue to play overtime periods until the game is decided. During overtime, teams will skate 5-on-5.

ECHL TEAM ROSTERS:

Teams can carry a maximum of 20 players on their active roster (not counting players on injured reserve).

ROOKIE AND VETERAN STATUS:

To be considered a Veteran, a player must have played in 260 professional games* prior to the 2011-12 season. To be considered a Rookie, a player must have played fewer than 25 professional games prior to the 2011-12 season. Teams may carry a maximum of four Veterans on its active roster (Goaltenders are exempt from Veteran status). Teams can carry an unlimited amount of Rookies.

**some European leagues do not count toward veteran status*

INJURED RESERVE:

The injured reserve will consist of 3-day, 7-day and 30-day slots. Teams will be allowed to place only one player at a time on the 3-day and 7-day IR slots, but there is no limit to the number of players that may be placed on the 30-day IR. Players may be moved from the 3-day IR to the 7-day IR then to the 30-day IR or from the 7-day IR to the 30-day IR, but may not be moved back from the 7-day IR to the 3-day IR or the 30-day IR to the 7-day IR.

TIE-BREAKERS:

If two teams are tied at the end of the regular season, the following are the tie-breakers: wins, points (head-to-head), wins (head-to-head), goal differential (head-to-head), winning percentage within division, winning percentage within conference, goals for, goals against, coin toss.

HOW TO FIGURE

ASSIST:

An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

GAME PLAYED:

A player receives credit for playing in a game if he steps on the ice during time played or; serves any penalty.

GAME-WINNING GOAL:

After the final score has been determined, the goal that leaves the winning team one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal. For example, if Bakersfield wins the game 7-4, the player who scored the Condors' fifth goal is credited with the game-winning goal. If the game is won in a shootout, the winning goal is credited to the "Bench".

GOAL:

A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring team to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

GOALS AGAINST AVERAGE:

Multiply goals allowed by 60. Divide that number by total minutes played.
 $(GA \times 60) / MIN = \text{Goals Against Average}$

GOALTENDER WINS/LOSSES:

The goaltender on the ice when the game-winning goal was scored is credited with the win or loss.

PENALTY KILLING PERCENTAGE:

Subtract the number of power play goals allowed from the number of times the team is short-handed. Divide by the number of times the team is shorthanded.
 $(TSH - PPGA) / TSH = \text{Penalty Killing Pct.}$

PLUS/MINUS RATING:

A player receives a +1 every time he is on the ice when his team scores an even-strength or short-handed goal. A player receives a -1 every time he is on the ice when his team allows an even strength or short-handed goal to the opposition. No plus or minus is given for a power-play goal.

POWER-PLAY GOAL:

A goal scored by a team while it has a man advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is NOT considered a power-play goal:

- 1) If a Club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 4:04 of the period and it scores at 6:04, it is not a power-play goal
- 2) If a Club scores on a delayed penalty, it is not a power-play goal (unless a power play was already in progress).

POWER PLAY PERCENTAGE:

Divide the total number of power play goals scored by total number of power play opportunities.

$PPG / PPA = \text{Power Play Pct.}$

Notes:

- 1) Even if there is only one second of power play time, it counts as a power-play opportunity.
- 2) If a penalty is continued from one period into the next, the power play conversion or failure is counted in the period in which the penalty expires or goal is scored.
- 3) If a team is on a power play due to a major penalty, that team can score as many times as possible until the penalty time expires (if a team scores during a minor penalty, the penalty and power play end).
- 4) If a team scores on a power play due to a major penalty, it is credited with having one more man-advantage opportunity than goals scored. After each power play goal, a new power play begins. Ex: if the Condors score twice during a major penalty, they would be credited with three chances.

Power Play Percentage, cont'd

5) A double-minor penalty counts as two penalties and two power play opportunities.

SAVE PERCENTAGE:

Divide the number of saves by the number of shots against.

$$\text{SAVES/SHOTS} = \text{Save Percentage}$$

SHOOTING PERCENTAGE:

Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken by that player.

$$\text{G/SHOTS} = \text{Shooting Percentage}$$

SHORT-HANDED GOAL:

A goal scored by a team killing a penalty.

SHOT ON GOAL:

If a player shoots the puck that would have gone into the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal." A shot that hits the post or a shot that misses the net altogether is not a shot on goal.

SHUTOUT:

If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead, it is recorded as a Team shutout.

TENTHS OF A SECOND:

If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second. (Ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47.)

WINNING PERCENTAGE:

A team's total points (wins multiplied by two, plus one point for each overtime and shootout loss) are divided by the number of actual points a team could have attained (games played multiplied by two).

$$(\text{W} \times 2) + (\text{OTL} + \text{SOL}) / (\text{GP} \times 2) = \text{Winning Percentage}$$
