Dear Fans,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2020-21 American Hockey League season, the latest chapter in a tradition of excellence that can be traced back more than eight decades.

The last several months have been difficult in so many ways, and this season is going to look and feel different than what we are all used to. But we are looking forward to being back on the ice and continuing our role as the top development league for nearly all of the players, coaches, executives, trainers, broadcasters and officials in the National Hockey League today. Since we first dropped the puck in 1936, generations of our great fans have been able to cheer on future superstars and Stanley Cup champions, as well as more than 100 eventual members of the Hockey Hall of Fame.

On behalf of all of our clubs across North America, thank you all for your continuing support of the AHL.

Sincerely,

SCOTT HOWSON President & Geo | American Hockey League

THE REGINNINGS

Embarking on its 85th season of play in 2020-21, the American Hockey League is continuing a tradition of excellence that began in 1936 when the Canadian-American Hockey League joined with the International Hockey League to form what is today known as the AHL. Eight teams hit the ice that first season, representing Buffalo, Cleveland, New Haven, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Providence, Springfield and Syracuse.

Frank Calder, the National Hockey League's president at the time, was instrumental in the forming of this new league, and his name would be given to its championship trophy. The first Calder Cup was won by the Syracuse Stars in 1937; the Hershey Bears have #### championships in league history with 11.

From those roots, the American Hockey League has grown into a 31-team, coast-to-coast league that provides fans with exciting, high-level professional hockey while preparing thousands of players, coaches, officials, executives, trainers, broadcasters and more for careers in the NHL.

THE PLAYERS

In today's National Hockey League nearly 90 percent of the players are AHL alumni, including 2020 Vezina Trophy winner Connor Hellebuyck, Norris Trophy recipient Roman Josi and Hart Trophy winner Leon Draisaitl. The 2020 Stanley Cup champion Tampa Bay Lightning were stocked with AHL graduates including Andrei Vasilevskiy, Nikita Kucherov, and former Calder Cup champions Ondrej Palat, Alex Killorn and Tyler Johnson.

During the 2019-20 season, a total of 866 AHL alumni played in the National Hockey League. There were 353 players who skated in both leagues last year alone, including the New York Rangers' Igor Shesterkin, Anaheim's Troy Terry, Dallas's Joel Kiviranta and Montreal's Jesperi Kotkaniemi.

In addition, more than 220 former first- and secondround NHL draft picks developed their skills in the AHL last season, including Filip Zadina, Evan Bouchard, Morgan Frost, Owen Tippett, Jack Studnicka, Josh Norris and Jake Bean.

THE LEGENDS

For the past eight decades, the American Hockey League has been home to some of the greatest players in the history of our sport. In fact, more than 100 honered members of the Hockey Hall of Fame have been affiliated with the AHL during their carees.

All-time greats like Johnny Bower, Toe Blake, Gump Worsley, Terry Sawchuk, Glenn Hall, Brad Park, Ken Dryden, and Brett Hull came through the AHL ranks and now find themselves enshrined in Toronto, and the coveted Calder Cup is inscribed with the names of legendary AHL alumni like Patrick Roy, Larry Robinson, Gerry Cheevers, Andy Bathgate, Tim Horton, Al Arbour, Emile Francis, Doug Harvey, and Billy Smith.

"Without my time in the AHL, the door to the NHL does not open."

- JON COOPER 2011-12 AHL COACH OF THE YEAR 2012 CALDER CUP CHAMPION 2020 STANLEY CUP CHAMPION

THE COACHES

At the start of the 2020-21 season, the National Hockey League featured 23 head coaches who were former AHL bench bosses, including 2020 Stanley Cup winner Jon Cooper of the Tampa Bay Lightning and 2020 Jack Adams Award recipient Bruce Cassidy of the Boston Bruins.

Colorado's Jared Bednar, Washington's Peter Laviolette, Pittsburgh's Mike Sullivan, Nashville's John Hynes, Vancouver's Travis Green and Dallas's Rick Bowness are also among the current NHL coaches who spent time in the American Hockey League before making the jump.
