LET'S GET TO KNOW HOCKEY

The Rink: A hockey rink is a large rectangle with rounded corners. The ice surface of a standard rink is 200 feet by 85 feet, but dimensions can vary.

Markings: The rink is divided in half by a red line used to determine icing. The two blue lines designate offensive and defensive zones and determine offsides.

Boards: The rink is surrounded by four feet high dasher boards. Extending from the boards are panes of plexiglass.

Nets: The goal nets have openings that are four feet high by six feet wide.

Goal Light: Then a goal is scored, a red light is illuminated behind the net. The light is operated by a goal judge who sits in a glass booth directly behind the net.

The Crease: The area shaded blue in front of each goal area is the crease. No player from the attacking team is allowed inside the crease unless the puck is there.

The Puck: A four-ounce vulcanized rubber disc that is one inch thick and three inches in diameter. Pucks are generally frozen to prevent them from bouncing on the ice.

Players: Teams are allowed to dress 16 players and two goalies. Most of the time, there are 5 skaters plus one goalie per team on the ice. Sometimes one team may have fewer players because of penalties or they can pull their goalie in favor of an extra attacker.

Officials: The game is officiated by a referee and two linesmen. The referee has an orange stripe on his sleeves. He calls most penalties while the linesmen call offsides and icing. The linesmen also break up fights.

FORMULAS

Points

Add Goals + Assists = Points

In hockey, players are awarded "points" both for scoring goals and for assisting in goals scored.

Points Per Game

Divide Points by number of Games Played = Points per Game

Goals Against Average

Divide Goals Against by the number of minutes played x 60 = Goals Against Average

For example 8 (GA) /239(Mins.) = 0.0334 times 60 (length of one game) = 2.01 Goals Against Average

Save Percentage

Saves/ Shots Attempted = Save Percentage

TIME TO PRACTICE:

Which Goaltender has the best Save Percentage? Bunz

Which Goaltender has the lower Goals Against Average? Bunz

Which Condor has the most points? 4-way tie

What is his Average Points Per Game? Steffes - 1.86

Who leads the Condors in total points? 4-way tie

Who has the most goals on the Condors? Knackstedt

Who has the most penalty minutes on either team? Dalhuisen - 28

PARTS OF SPEECH

Noun: A person place or thing. If a noun is a name, it is called a proper noun. Proper nouns are always capitalized. For example, a condor is bird. That is a noun. If you are talking about a member of the hockey team, you would be using the team name and you would capitalize it such as "Condor player".

Verb: A verb shows action, links subjects and nouns, or shows state of being. For example, skating is a verb.

Adjective & Adverbs: An adjective is a word that describes a noun. For example, "The big hockey player.." 'big' is an adjective. An adverb is a word that describes a verb. For example, "The fans cheered loudly." 'loudly' is an adverb. Adverbs commonly end in 'ly'.

Put the following words in the correct category:

puck	shoot	stick
cold	practice	score
ice	exciting	jersey
Condor	loud	quickly
skating	cheer	skilled

NOUN	VERB	ADJECTIVE/ADVERB
Jersey	shoot	Quickly
Stick	score	skilled
Practice	cheer	loud
Condor	skating	exciting
ice		cold
PUCK

HOCKEY MAD LIB

Now have some fun making up your own! Ask a friend to name a part of speech for each blank. Then read the paragraph back to them out loud with the newly inserted words.

The Bakersfield Condors are a _____ adjective hockey team! They play in the ECHL. The players are very good at _____ verb and the opposing teams are afraid of their _____ noun. The mascot, Colonel Claw'd, is very funny. He _____ verb and _____ verb over the place! My favorite part of the game is when the _____ noun quickly _____ verb and the crowd goes wild. My favorite player, _____ proper noun, skates around the ice like a _____ noun. When the game is over, the _____ adjective equipment is put away until next time. I love _____ verb at Condors games!

CREATIVE WRITING PROMPTS

Last night I dreamt I was a professional hockey player. I got a phone call from Coach Mann saying they needed me to play in today's game. I grabbed my gear and headed to the rink. When I got there .....

One sunny day, Colonel Claw'd was flying around Kern County when he looked down and saw.....
